VIERNES 23 DE MAYO

PARROQUIA CATOLICA SAN AGUSTIN - 7pm - BOLETO: 15dlls

3630 N 71ST AVENUE, PHOENIX, ARIZONA 85033 (623)849.3131 WWW.PHXSTA.ORG

Sandy Caldera es una cantante católica, psicóloga y conferencista mexicana, cuyo testimonio es conmovedor, puesto que, siendo invidente de nacimiento, Dios la ha dotado de grandes carismas para convertirse en la motivación de todos aquellos pesimistas que creen que Dios castiga y abandona a las personas con capacidades especiales.

Sandy nació el 4 de octubre de 1982 en Jerez, Zacatecas, México

Desde temprana edad demostró una fuerte inclinación por la música, y aunque su discapacidad visual la hizo enfrentarse con los primeros obstáculos de la vida desde que nació, ahora posee una importante trayectoria musical que consta de varios conciertos, discos, sencillos y giras.

A la edad de cinco años acudió a un retiro espiritual y ahí descubrió la profundidad del amor de Cristo. Movida por el Espíritu Santo, decidió consagrar su voz para alabar a Dios y para buscar la paz del mundo, con la promesa específica de que toda su vida y su voz iba a ser para llevar almas a los pies de Jesús y buscar el bienestar de los seres humanos y sus familias.

Te invitamos a esta bella noche de concierto, testimonio y oración para alabar a Dios nuestro Señor y pedirle su Gracia, su sanación en lo físico, emocional o espiritual. Nadie se irá con las manos vacías.

Si tienes un familiar, amistad o conocido y alejado (a) de Dios, ¡ invítalo (a)! Si conoces a alguien que está pasando por una depresión, un problema o una situación difícil y quieres hacercarlo (a) a Cristo, esta es una muy bonita oportunidad.

El cupo es muy limitado. Compra tus boletos al salir de Misa o en la oficina parroquial. ¡Te esperamos!

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Mini Reflection: It does sound unbelievable, the story of the Resurrection. But lots of things are unbelievable. That doesn't mean they're not true. Take Thomas' example: stay close to the people you trust. Be willing to recognize Jesus when he's in front of you.

Wonder, Don't Wander

My daughter recently asked me if it's okay to "wonder if all the Jesus stuff is true."

I wasn't surprised by her question. I've expected it, in fact. If you're raising a child to be a critical thinker, you don't want them to accept everything you tell them simply because it comes from your lips. I have promised my children that I will always give them the truth about God. But that's all I can do — give it to them. Whether or not they accept it, ultimately, is their own choice.

"I know it's true," she told me. "But sometimes it just all sounds so...unbelievable."

She's not wrong. It does sound unbelievable that an all-powerful God could create us for no reason other than sheer love, that He could be generous enough to give us free will to accept that love, that he could be merciful enough not to destroy us when we reject that love, and finally that he could be faithful enough in that love to become flesh and die in order to save us from the consequences of our own poor choices.

But lots of things are unbelievable. That doesn't mean they're not true.

When Jesus says, "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed," he isn't calling Thomas a fool for questioning something that sounds a little outrageous. He's just highlighting the fact that Thomas is afforded a luxury that none of the Christians born after him, my daughter included, will have: he gets to see proof with his own eyes.

I told my daughter it's fine to wonder — just don't wander. Take Thomas' example. Stay close to the people you trust. Return to the warmth of the upper room. Be willing to recognize Jesus when he's in front of you. Never be afraid to believe.

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

If Jesus destroyed sin, why are sins still with us?

Answer:

We are the children of God, heirs of the Father's work, which is life. The struggle is between good and evil and the greatest weapon of evil is death. It is final — the end of hope and all possibility of change. Jesus must destroy death so that life, eternal life, might be possible. That is why Jesus dies: to take on sin's weapon and destroy it by his resurrection. It was not to satisfy God's sense of justice, but to meet sin on its own terms and defeat it.

Since we are heirs and coworkers with God, ours is the struggle with the remnants of evil, its last desperate attempt to overcome good. Like Jesus, we are about the Father's business in our daily life, carrying the message of salvation to everyone. We are strengthened in our struggle and come to realize the great gift of life with which we are graced. It is our hope that one day we will rejoice with the Father in a job well done!

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

It's common for Catholics to hear the question, "Why do I have to go to a priest to have my sins forgiven?" I've never liked that question because not only is it clunky (confession is the ordinary way for the pardoning of serious sins, not lesser ones). But it misses the larger context: the wonderful origins of the sacrament itself. And this context is deeply Jewish.

Ancient Jews associated forgiveness of sins with priests offering sacrifices in the Jerusalem temple. It was a solemn, public, and tangible way to access God's mercy. So when the risen Jesus breathes on the Apostles and says, "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained" (John 20:23), the upshot is remarkable: he is the new temple and his Apostles are the new priests. Jerusalem is no longer the place to find forgiveness from sin. Jesus' body, the Church, is.

So why should we go to the Sacrament of Confession? For the same reason ancient Jews went to the temple in Jerusalem: to experience the intimacy, joy, and life-giving power of God's eternal forgiveness.

— Father John Muir
